In a few people, perhaps.differentiation ("division of labor") than in the Archipelago..The True Runes used in the Archipelago embody words of the Speech of the Making. True Runes are not symbols only, but reifactors: they can be used to bring a thing or condition into being or bring about an event. To write such a rune is to act. The power of the action varies with the circumstances. Most of the True Runes are found only in ancient texts and lore-books, and used only by wizards trained in their use; but a good many of them, such as the symbol written on the door lintel to protect a house from fire, are in common use, familiar to unlearned people..weather, if you have any need of that. And I'll learn the art from any who will teach me.."safest? But while he was thinking about it, Losen's men, used to wizard's tricks, drugged his food.The old Namer came forward and said to the woman on the hill, "Who are you?".Havnor, from the upland farms of Onn and the woodlands of Faliern. "To cure the beasts," Gift said.."Where's your mother?" he asked in a whisper..talons to a man's legs and his great wings to arms..the path continued, I saw faintly gleaming hedges, wet bunches of leaves hung over a metal gate.."Stand!" he said to it in its language, and let go of it. It stood as if he had driven it into a socket..of. If you had any of horn or bone, maybe? I'd trade one of these little velvet caps here for.She was a little drunk, I thought.."Only in some very, very old tales. Before the gods were. Before men were. Before men were men..".And a man comes when you knock, an ordinary-looking man. And he gives you a test. You have to say a certain word, a password, before he'll let you in. If you don't know it, you can never go in. But if he lets you in, then from inside you see that the door is entirely different - it's made out of horn, with a tree carved on it, and the frame is made out of a tooth, one tooth of a dragon that lived long, long before Erreth-Akbe, before Morred, before there were people in Earthsea. There were only dragons, to begin with. They found the tooth on Mount Onn, in Havnor, at the centre of the world. And the leaves of the tree are carved so thin that the light shines through them, but the door's so strong that if the Doorkeeper shuts it no spell could ever open it. And then the Doorkeeper takes you down a hall and another hall, till you're lost and bewildered, and then suddenly you come out under the sky. In the Court of the Fountain, in the very deepest inside of the Great House. And that's where the Archmage would be, if he was there..."Of the four of them, only the Doorkeeper moved and spoke. He took a step forward, looking from one.She lay awake in the little house, feeling the air stifling and the ceiling pressing down on her, then slept suddenly and deeply. She woke as suddenly when the east was just getting light. She went to the door to see what she loved best to see, the sky before sunrise. Looking down from it she saw Azver the Patterner rolled up in his grey cloak, sound asleep on the ground before her doorstep. She withdrew noiselessly into the house. In a little while she saw him going back to his woods, walking a bit stiffly and scratching his head as he went, as people do when half awake..c'est la meme chose, plus fa change..Six to seven hundred years ago a sky-god religion began to spread across the islands, a development of the worship of the Twin Gods Atwah and Wuluah, originally heroes of a desert saga from Hur-at-Hur. A Sky Father was added as head of the pantheon, and a priestly caste developed to lead the rites. Without suppressing the worship of the Old Powers, the priests of the Twin Gods and the Sky Father began to professionalise religion, managing the rituals and festivals, building increasingly costly temples, and controlling public ceremonies such as marriages, funerals, and the installation of officials.
